

- You must use the most current version of the Project Workbook
- Please completely fill out the contact information page: The following is the Council Information: Council Name-Old North State Council; 336 378-9166; 1405 Westover Terrace Greensboro 27408; Kristin.Smale@scouting.org. For district information, visit the Eagle Scout Page at www.bsaonsc.org
- The signature page with 3 of the 4 required signatures. (The Dist. Board will sign in the 4th spot once project is approved at the review)
- Does your project provide sufficient opportunity for you to show that planning, development and leadership will take place and will it benefit a religious institution, a school or your community?
- Is the project realistic for you to complete?
- Are safety issues addressed?
- Include a list of steps and enough detail to ensure your plan will be carried out successfully.
- Eagle Scout Service Project Fundraising Application should be used ONLY if the scout is taking contributions from anyone other than their parents or relatives, his unit or its chartered organization (ex. church congregation), parents or members of his unit, or the project's beneficiary. For example - If something is to be sold to raise money for a project or a scout will appeal to the public for donations (i.e. car wash, pancake supper) an application must be submitted. Raffles or other games of chance are not permitted.
  - It is important to know that due to Boy Scouts of America (BSA) and Internal Revenue Service (IRS) policies, neither individual Scouts nor Boy Scout Troops are permitted to conduct fundraisers on Social Media through Network for Good/Facebook, Go Fund Me, or any other method where funds come directly to the Old North State Council, BSA office. Our state and federally recognized not-for-profit, 501© 3 business status requires that we recognize all donors and account of all such donations to the Old North State Council, BSA. As such, we are prohibited from sending those donated funds to an individual Scout or Boy Scout Troop. In other words, we cannot “funnel” donations through the Old North State Council, BSA office to any Eagle Scout candidate. If an Eagle Scout candidate wants to set up fundraising on social media for an Eagle Project, the funds need to go directly to the organization benefiting from the project or the candidate may use the online site recommended by the National Eagle Scout Association (NESA)- Redbasket.org: <https://redbasket.org/>

Final Eagle Board of Review Checklist (after you have completed your project):

- According to National Requirements, a completed Eagle application must be submitted. It must include 21 merit badges, all six references listed on your application unless the Scout is not employed, then the five references are required. The Life Scout leadership position dates must START on the date you earned life rank and extend for at least 6 months. A statement of life purpose, ambitions and goals must be attached (requirement 7), 3 signatures (the applicant, unit leader and committee chair) must be complete on the application.
- Two letters of recommendation must be included in your notebook.
- All pages must be completely filled out in your workbook, including photos, reported hours, candidate's signature and required signatures for completing the project.
- All three sections of the workbook: the proposal (with 4 signatures), the plan, and the report (with 3 signatures) is to be included.
- Be sure to note your district's deadline to turn in your book. If your book is turned in after the deadline, you will have to wait a month to go before the board.